IMPORTANT MESSAGE ABOUT THIS ACCOUNT

This letter will serve as Countrywide's demand for payment and advises you that Countrywide and/or its Investors and/or Insurers have agreed to accept a short payoff involving the above referenced property and the referenced account(s). This demand should be used by the closing agent as our formal demand statement. No additional statement will be issued. This approval is exclusive to the offer from the buyer referenced in this letter.

WHAT THIS MEANS TO THE SELLER

Countrywide and/or its investors may pursue a deficiency judgment for the difference in the payment received and the total balance due, unless agreed otherwise or prohibited by law, if the short sale closes on the loan referenced above. In addition, if this loan is covered by mortgage insurance, the mortgage insurance company may reserve the right to pursue the seller for the deficiency based on the terms of the mortgage insurance policy. Furthermore, there may be tax consequences associated with entering into a short sale. The seller is encouraged to seek the guidance from an independent tax advisor, and/or an attorney, before proceeding with the short sale.

If this short sale is contingent upon Countrywide and/or its investors receiving a promissory note, we will reserve the right to collect the full amount on the new promissory note which may lead to us pursuing a deficiency on that balance should the need arise. If the short sale does not close, then we will pursue all remedies under our note and mortgage. This offer is contingent upon Countrywide receiving a properly executed Letter of Deficiency which was sent to the borrower on N/A.

If we receive a check for insurance or miscellaneous proceeds that were not previously disclosed, Countrywide will have the right to keep the proceeds and apply them to Countrywide's loss after the short sale.
